Darryl Moore appeals from a sentence and judgment of conviction for murder in the second degree and armed criminal action.

AFFIRMED.

Division One Holds: The trial court did not err or abuse its discretion in: (1) refusing to issue a writ of body attachment against witness Lamarkis Cowan compelling him to testify as a material defense witness; or (2) denying Moore's motions for a judgment of acquittal, because the State presented sufficient evidence to support a finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt for murder in the second degree and armed criminal action.
